Fall 2018 – MWF 11 am – Barrows 166 Nasser Meerkhan

Office hours: Mon 12.15-1.15 pm, Wed 8.45-9.45 am Office: Dwinelle 5218 E-mail: meerkhan@berkeley.edu

This course will focus on the cultural history of Islamic Iberia (Al-Andalus) from the Muslim conquest of 711 until the expulsion of Moriscos in 1609 CE. Topics covered include the history, literature, architecture, arts and music of Al-Andalus. The major aim is for the students to develop an understanding of, and a sensibility to the history, politics, and cultures of Al-Andalus as well as its social and cultural relevance to contemporary audiences.

Required texts:

Constable, Olivia Remie. Medieval Iberia: Readings From Christian, Muslim, and Jewish Sources. University of Pennsylvania Press, 2012. Available through bookstore & on Amazon and Barnes & Noble. Used books are fine; older/other editions are not.

Other readings on bCourses site (marked below with asterisk)

Expectations

Students are expected to:

- 1. Come to class with textbook, printed readings and/or laptops.
- 2. Spend three hours studying/preparing for each hour of class time.
- 3. Participate actively in class; challenging themselves to go beyond their comfort zone in order to make the most out of their learning experience.
- 4. Be respectful and open about others' opinions and interpretations of readings, especially when they disagree.
- 5. Turn in assignments promptly, following MLA recommended formatting
- 6. Provide reasonable feedback about the course whenever they deem it necessary.
- 7. Phones are not allowed (unless asked to use them for polls, etc.)

Course Requirements and Grading

- 1. Class attendance and participation (10%): Your attendance and daily participation is crucial not only for your grade, but for the success of this class. Students are expected to come to class having carefully done the assigned readings.
- 2. Semester-long cultural project (25%): Students will work in groups of four or five on an ePortfolio to explore a cultural topic relevant to Al-Andalus (list of suggested topics available on bCourses > ePortfolio).

The project will comprise four entries on the ePortfolio website. The first entry will explain why the students have chosen this specific topic and what their expectations are. The second and third entries will constitute the core of the project where students a) study previous literature on the chosen topic and b) provide a "close reading" of the text in question (be the object of study written word, images, buildings, music, etc.) The final entry will comprise a personal reflection on the outcomes of the project. This is an ongoing endeavor, which means students will have the chance to improve their entries until the very end of the semester, when all projects will be assessed for a final grade. Besides each student's own undertaking, groups will be assigned to comment on each other's entries, providing feedback and suggestions.

- 3. Informal journals (10%): You are expected to write four journals (2.5% each) where you reflect on the texts that you are reading in class. This is your space to express your thoughts freely on the texts, and the ways in which you can relate to them.
- 4. Midterm (%15) and final (%35) exams: Both exams are cumulative and will include multiple-choice questions, true of false, short essay prompts, etc.
