bCourses: In bcourses.berkeley.edu, there is a course website. If you have not an access to this site, please let me know.

Exam dates: Midterm July 21
 Final August 12

Cheat sheet: In the exams, you can bring a hand written letter size double sided cheat sheet.

Calendar: I will upload a calendar file in bCourses, which contains what we have covered and information about homework.

Homework policy: There are daily homework assignments. They are due at the end of classes (10 a.m.) on Wednesday or Friday. Please check the calendar file for details.

Among your scores, we drop 5 lowest scores. For example, if we have 35 assignments, then only 30 highest scores will be computed.

No late homework will be accepted unless there are exceptional circumstances.
